PREFACE

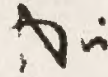

The present volume of Annual Report of the Higher Education Department highlights the activities of the Department during the preceding year and provides valuable information on Universities, Colleges and Institutions engaged in graduate education and higher degrees. This volume also brings out the details of the institutions that cater to professional subjects, including engineering and management. During last one year, two Centres of Excellence – one in Social Sciences and the other in Biotechnology have been set up — the first as an autonomous Institute and the second as a wing of the West Bengal University of Technology. Besides, 6 degree-level Engineering and Technology Colleges have been established in the State in the Academic Session 2002-2003. Approval has been accorded to introduce 135 Honours courses and 104 General courses in different subjects, in 124 Colleges of the State. This Department has also given priority to the introduction of various need-based / job-related subjects and courses relevant to the modern age.

The particulars and information furnished in this volume are based on the materials collected from different institutions and organizations, attached to this Department. I take this opportunity to thank all these institutions and organizations that have furnished this information and have thereby helped in the publication of this Report.

I would fail in my duty if I do not mention here the assistance extended by District Magistrates who have taken an active interest in collection of the data on colleges and institutions situated in the far-flung areas of the State. I am grateful to the officers and the members of staff belonging to our two Directorates, viz. the Directorate of Higher Education and the Directorate of Technical Education, for their assistance. Shri Manotosh Biswas, Deputy Secretary of this Deptt and his team of officers and staff have worked tirelessly to bring out this updated volume and I thank them.

It would be of immense help towards the improvement of this publication if suggestions are received from different corners.

MAIN ACTIVITIES AND ACHIEVEMENTS DURING THE YEAR

3.6 TECHNICAL EDUCATION

i) Degree level engineering education in West Bengal has taken a giant stride in the recent past. Till 1995, there were only nine institutions and/or university faculties, which were imparting undergraduate engineering education to about 1650 students every year. These students used to be recommended for admission by the West Bengal Board of Examination through a state level Joint Entrance Examination. Usually, for every 25 aspirants for engineering education, only one seat was available. The situation, however, underwent a sea change with the decision of the government to allow setting up of engineering colleges under private management. The State of West Bengal witnessed the establishment of 30 new engineering colleges including two Pharmacy and one Hotel Management Degree level colleges by 2002-2003 in a span of 6 years and except for one, Kalyani Govt. Engineering College, which was set up by the Government of West Bengal in 1995, all others were private initiatives only.

ii) The development of infrastructure and academic environment in these newly set up engineering colleges, however, vary. While a few of them have really come up very fast by investing a lot of money in building up laboratories and other infrastructural facilities, a few are still to catch up.

iii) In four technology colleges of the state, apart from the core subjects, IT and Computer Sc. & Eng. have been introduced on self-financing basis.

iv) In order to improve the quality of education imparted in existing Engineering & Technology Colleges of the State affiliated to various universities, a technological university has been set up in 2000 to which all most all these colleges have been affiliated.

3.10 MEASURES FOR QUALITY IMPROVEMENT OF HIGHER EDUCATION

A) Implementation of the UGC Scheme for revision of pay scale of the University and College Teachers and other academic staff :

It was felt that urgent attention had to be given to the need to improve academic standards in universities and colleges. They had to attract and retain the best talents in the teaching profession for the purpose. With this end in view, a committee was formed under the chairmanship of Prof. Rastogi to examine as to how and to what extent better scales of pay and service conditions could be allowed to the teachers and to suggest measures for qualitative improvement in the teaching profession. The Government of India accepted the UGC recommendations with certain modifications and recommended a revision of scales of pay of teachers of the universities and colleges. Certain other service benefits including promotion/career advancement at different levels were included in this scheme.

The Government of West Bengal have accepted the recommendations of the Government of India (except in regard to increase in the age of superannuation) and have implemented the scheme. Suitable guidelines for improvement of the quality of teaching in the universities and colleges have also been formulated under the UGC scheme and extended to those institutions. These are broadly in the field of (i) revised qualifications for recruitment of teachers, (ii) composition of the Selection Committees for such recruitment, (iii) fixing minimum teaching days and work load, (iv) evolving professional ethics, (v) ensuring accountability etc.

As in previous years, the State Government acquired buildings associated with the memory of great personalities with a view to preserving the buildings and promoting cultural and academic activities. Fund has been released towards the acquisition of the building at the premises at Asraf Mistry Lane, Calcutta where Maulana Abul Kalam Azad lived during pre-independence period.

3.16 SCHOLARSHIP & STIPEND

In order that no brilliant student is prevented because of poverty from pursuing an academic career, various schemes of National Scholarships for post-matriculation studies were initiated by the Government of India in 1961-62. Since then, these schemes have been continued from year to year.

The Scholarship and Stipend Section of the Education Directorate, Government, of West Bengal looks after the following Scholarship / Stipend Schemes:

1. National Scholarship on the basis of results of Madhyamik Examination of West Bengal Board of Secondary Education and West Bengal Board of Madrasa Education.
2. National Scholarship based on the results of Higher Secondary Examination of West Bengal Council of Higher Secondary Education.

3. National Scholarship on the basis of results of B.A/B.Sc. /B.Com (Honours) Examinations of various Universities in West Bengal.
4. National Scholarship for Teachers' Children.

Scholarship is awarded for Post-Matriculation studies in Hindi with a view to encouraging the study of Hindi in Non-Hindi speaking states and making available to Governments of these states, suitable personnel to man teaching and other posts where knowledge of Hindi is essential. In 2001-2002, about 240 students will get Hindi scholarship.

National Scholarships and Hindi Scholarship Schemes are funded by the Central Government. At present the total number of N.S. quota for the State of West Bengal is 3176 (out of total of 38,000 all over the country), who actually get scholarship money.

The D.P.I. Special Stipend on the basis of the results of Madhyamik Pariksha and B.A./ B.Sc./ B.Com. examinations are offered and funded by Government of West Bengal (for those who do not get N.S.). We are trying to include this stipend at Higher Secondary level also, so that this scheme becomes parallel to National Scholarship scheme.

A number of scholarships out of the Nizamat Stipend and the Mohsin Trust Funds are also released by West Bengal Government for meritorious Muslim Students only.

The total number of National Scholarships released exceeded 1500 in 2002-2003. Merit certificates were issued to another 2500 students. About 500 students received the D. P. I. Special Stipend and stipends from the Nizamat and the Mohsin Trust Fund. Rate of Mohsin Trust Fund stipend has been made at par with D.P.I. Special Stipend.

In spite of earnest efforts by all staff members of Scholarship section (Education Directorate) the actual disbursement of the Scholarship / Stipend to scholars is inordinately delayed due to multiple reasons beyond the control of the Directorate (e.g. incomplete or inaccurate or non- availability of data from scholars and respective school/college/university authorities, late release of funds from the Central Government, postal delay etc.) We have moved the Central Govt. to increase the income limit of parents so that more students get the actual National Scholarship amount and the term National Merit Scholarship becomes meaningful, otherwise the total quota of 3176 cannot be properly utilised.

3.17 PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The 5th Inter Govt. College Table Tennis Tournament and the 14th Inter-Government College Athletic Meet and the 12th Inter-Government College Football Championship were held at Yuba Bharati Krirangan and SAI Complex, Salt Lake, Kolkata-700 091 between 8th and 15th February, 2003.

N.C.C. wing of Education Directorate has certain routine activities :

- (a) To arrange and conduct periodical Board meetings (i.e. Interview) for selection of candidates for undertaking 3- months' military training, called NCC Pre-Commission training, on completion of which they become full-fledged Associate NCC Officers (ANO) to run the NCC units of schools and colleges in West Bengal. Normally the Board meets 4 times a year.
- (b) Overall supervision and monitoring of the existing NCC units in schools/colleges, and granting of approval in respect of raising, or withdrawal and reallotment of such units in schools and colleges.
- (c) To approve financial allowances for NCC Caretakers in schools and colleges pending the appointment of full-fledged ANOs in those institutions.
- (d) To liaise with various defence establishments in the metropolis on many occasion throughout the year.

CHAPTER - 4

ENGINEERING & TECHNOLOGY AND MANAGEMENT EDUCATION

4.1 ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY COLLEGES

In 1947-48, there were only three Engineering and Technology Colleges in West Bengal with an intake capacity of 320 only. The period from 1948 to 1961 witnessed a slow but steady growth of technical education in the state with the establishment of 9 (nine) more engineering and technology colleges. The intake capacity thus increased from 320 to 1452. Between 1961 and 1994, there was no further expansion of degree level engineering education in the State.

The current phase of expansion in degree level engineering and technology education was initiated by the establishment of Kalyani Government Engineering College at Kalyani, Nadia in the year 1995. Since then, the expansion has been uniformly rapid over the 9th plan period. But this has been limited to the private sector only. Starting from Haldia Institute of Technology, Haldia, established in 1996-97, as many as 30 (thirty) more private degree level institutions including 1 (one) Hotel Management and 2 (two) University Departments have been established during the period between 1997-98 and 2002-2003.

The State Government has introduced a B.E./B.Tech course on Information Technology in Jalpaiguri Government Engineering College, Jalpaiguri, whereas the course in Computer Science & Engineering have been introduced in all the four Govt. Technology Colleges of the State from the last academic session of (2001-02).

During the year 2002-03 the following 6 colleges were set up :

Sl.No.	Name of the Institution	Intake Capacity
1.	National Power Training Institute, Durgapur	60
2.	Future Institute of Engineering & Management, Kolkata	240
3.	Institute of Technology & Marine Engineering, South 24-Parganas	240
4.	Mallabhum Institute of Technology, Bakura	240
5.	Durgapur Institute of Advanced Tech. & Management	240
6.	Calcutta Institute of Pharmaceutical Technology & Allied Health Sciences, Howrah	60

ENGINEERING & TECHNOLOGY AND MANAGEMENT EDUCATION

With the establishment of these institutions and also due to the introduction of new degree courses in the existing Institutions in Information Technology, Computer Science & Engineering the related areas, the intake capacity in degree level Engineering and Technology courses in the post-Higher Secondary level has gone up to a little over 9964. With the post B.Sc. level B.Tech. courses of Calcutta and the Jadavpur University and including the post diploma level BE courses in Jadavpur University, the figure is slightly over 10506.

Information and Communication Technology related courses :

It may be emphasized that due to increasing demand of technical manpower in the field of information technology and related areas, most of the newly established institutions have introduced degree courses in Information Technology, Computer Science & Engineering and Electronics & Communication Engineering. Thus, out of eight thousand odd seats available in the Post Higher Secondary level, I.T., Computer Science & Engineering, Electronics & Communication Engineering and other similar courses account for 5850 seats.

Biotechnology Courses :

Biotechnology has emerged as a potential area of technological education in the state. B. Tech in Biotechnology course has been introduced in five engineering institutions, so far

Introduction of Master of Computer Application (M.C.A.) Courses :

The expansion of engineering and technology education in the State has been further facilitated by the introduction of M.C.A. course in as many as 19 (Nineteen) Institutions, including the universities like the North Bengal University and the Vidyasagar University. The total intake capacity for the Master of Computer Application (M.C.A.) Course in the State of West Bengal is at present 850 (2002-03).

The West Bengal University of Technology :

The West Bengal University of Technology, established in 2000-2001, has started functioning from the academic session of 2001-2002. Besides affiliating the existing Engineering and Technology institutions, both in the Govt. as well as in Private sector, it has also started affiliating different institutions for conducting B.B.A., B.C.A. and certain other courses like B. Optometry.

The IIIT-C has been amalgamated with The West Bengal University of Technology as the University Department of Information Technology. The students already on the rolls of the Institute shall, henceforth, be under the academic and administrative control of the University and shall be awarded BE degree in Information Technology of West Bengal University of Technology on successful completion of the Course.

The University has started its first 2-year M. Tech. Course in Biotechnology at the University premises from January 2003. The University has been accorded a support grant from the Department of Bio-technology, Government of India, for running the course.

Also the University has planned to start in-house 2 Yr. M. Tech. Programme in Software Engineering in the same premises in order to meet the demand of teachers for Computer Science and IT in general degree colleges. The University has been planning to open the emerging new M. Tech. Course in Nano-materials and Microelectronics from the academic session 2003-2004.

Introduction of Lateral Entry Scheme :

In tune with the scheme of the All India Council for Technical Education, the State Govt. has extended the scope of degree level engineering education to the diploma holders in engineering in the State through the Lateral Entry Scheme.

4.2 MANAGEMENT INSTITUTES

MANAGEMENT EDUCATION

Organisations today are faced with radical and rapid changes, shrinking resources and intense competition. Companies are looking for individuals who possess a broad range of practical skills and a breadth of knowledge that can be used to solve problems within the organisation. A management graduate is trained and prepared to respond to the opportunities and demands of a highly competitive business environment. Thus, most organisations now recognise the importance of recruiting professionally qualified managers to help provide the skills and direction necessary for an organisation to survive, grow and prosper in this dynamic and challenging environment. Moreover, with the opening up of the economy and markets the world over, the demand for management graduates with a global outlook has increased phenomenally.

In India, the prerequisite to a career in management, is a postgraduate degree, diploma offered by management institutions or departments.

5.2 CALCUTTA UNIVERSITY

Date of Establishment: 24th January 1857

The University is guided by Calcutta University Act ,1979

email : registrar@cuccernet.in

The Calcutta University along with the Bombay University and the Madras University was established in 1857. The university is now being governed by the Calcutta University Act, 1979 which came into force on February 10, 1983.

The Calcutta University affiliates colleges mostly at the under-graduate level and also offers courses directly at the post-graduate level. A number of universities have been established in the State to lighten the burden of the Calcutta University. Its jurisdiction has now been limited to the districts of North and South 24-Parganas (except the Bijpur Police Station area of the former district), the district of Howrah as well as Serampur subdivision of the Hooghly district. Even so, the number of colleges affiliated by the University is 204. The university has allowed a few colleges such as the Presidency College, the Maulana Azad college and the Dinabandhu Andrews College to teach at the post-graduate level.

The Calcutta University has four campuses, namely, ASHUTOSH SHIKSHYA PRANGAN at College Street, RASHBEHARI SHIKSHYA PRANGAN at Rajabazar, TARAKNATH SHIKSHYA PRANGAN at Ballygunge Circular Road and SAHID KHUDIRAM SHIKSHYA PRANGAN at Alipore. It has 58 departments and offers 80 courses to nearly 12,000 post-graduate students.

The university monitors and awards Ph. D. degrees to research scholars. On an average, the Ph.D. degree is awarded to 175 students each year. According to a NISSAT report, in terms of output and impact, the university is among the first ten universities of the country in research on science and technology. The UGC has awarded CAS/DSA/DRS/COSIST programmes to more than fifteen departments of the university on the basis of research performance

The four major campuses of the university have leased line access to the VSNL server. Through optical fibre network different departments and faculty members get access to e-mail and Internet facilities by router system. The central library is automated by using SOUL developed by IFILIBNET.

The university has created the B.C. Guha Center for Genetic Engineering and Biotechnology and the S.N. Pradhan Institute of Neuroscience with financial assistance from NRIs and eminent individuals. The State Government and the Government of India have also extended financial assistance to the B.C. Guha Centre.

5.2.13 Highlights of the activities of the University during 2002-2003

1. Two-year M.Sc. course in Environmental Science running in the Department of Biochemistry and the one-year-and-a-half M. Tech. course in Atmospheric Science have now- been brought under a single umbrella of the Institute of Environmental and Atmospheric Science for offering two-year M.Sc. course in Atmospheric Science and two-year M.Sc. course in Environmental Science. The Institute will be located in the erstwhile History Complex at Hazra Road and appropriate infrastructure as far as possible is being provided from the internal resources of the University.

We are contemplating to create a Directorate of Distance Education through which Degrees are intended to be offered through Distance Learning.

2. The University has also reallocated some of the approved teaching posts for other courses in frontline areas, namely for the two-year M.Sc. course in Microbiology, two-year M.Sc. course in Environmental Science, two-year M.Sc. course in Biotechnology running in the department of Biochemistry and for the two-year M.Sc. course in Computer and Information Science running in the department of Computer Science & Engineering.
3. With the concurrence of the AI CTE and the Govt. of West Bengal The University had started three year MCA course in the Computer Centre. Students of the MCA course are being charged a tuition fee of Rs. 3000.00 per month. In view of the fact that the Centre did not have any whole time staff of its own, a Memorandum Of Understanding was signed with the CMC Ltd. for sharing a part of our teaching load for the MCA students- As per the agreement, we have been paying fifty percent of the tuition fees collected by us from the students for those semesters for which the CMC Ltd. is involved. Recently some of the already approved teaching posts of the University for other departments have been reallocated by the Syndicate for the three year MCA course running in the Computer Centre.

5.3 JADAVPUR UNIVERSITY

Year of Establishment: 24th December, 1955

The University is governed by the Jadavpur University Act, 1981

Website : www.jadavpur.edu

Email : rkbju@hotmail.com.

The main campus of the university is located at Jadavpur in the southern part of Calcutta. The university also has a campus at Salt Lake. It conducts both under-graduate and post-graduate courses and offers doctoral programmes.

The Jadavpur University owes its origin to the Dawn Society, established in 1902 by Shri Satish Chandra Mukherjee. The society was the result of the national upsurge for the liberation of education from British domination. The vision of the Dawn Society took a practical shape in the birth of the National Council of Education on the 11th of March, 1906. The objective of the Council was "to impart education, literary and scientific as well as technical and professional on national line and exclusively under national control, not in opposition to, but standing apart from the existing system of primary, secondary and collegiate education, attaching special importance to a knowledge of the country, its literature, history and philosophy and designed to incorporate with the best Oriental ideals of life and thought, the best assimilable ideals of the West, and inspire students with a genuine love for and desire to serve the country". This statement made nearly fifty years before the independence of India remains relevant even today. Another institution especially meant for technical education was started simultaneously by Sri Tarak Nath Palit, which was later amalgamated with the National Council of Education in 1910. Thus came into being the Bengal National College, which was renamed the College of Engineering and Technology in 1928. The college attained its present status of a university on 24th December 1955 with three faculties of Arts, Science and Engineering & Technology.

separated subjects in the light of the ever changing Global scenario. A new effort under the name of Global change programme is linking up directly the in house research efforts to the national and international level research, policy capacity building and action in the area of climate change. The University has been identified as a centre for carrying out multidisciplinary research to support the Ministry of Environment and Forest in its obligatory duty towards preparation of the national communication to the UNFCCC (United Nations Frame Work Convention for Climate Change) on climate change. Our research results were presented at the Eighth conference of parties of UNFCCC 2002 and has earned much appreciation. Over last two years under the global change programme the University has successfully mobilized quite a good sum of money from various Central Ministries UNDP, CEF, ISRO, towards research and capacity building and training of policy makers on several aspects of global change.

JU has recently tied up with a number of British universities to give the students better career options. The tie-up will give the students a chance to interact with experts of foreign universities and will also give them an idea about various industry related jobs.

Now, one can study at JU and get a degree jointly from JU and Stratfordshire University. The two universities are jointly launching a three-year part-time MA course in Sustainable Development from July, 2003.

The university has also tied up with Brunel University and Vienna University for a project on 'operation and risk management'. "This will help JU students to conduct research with their European counterparts". The university has recently received a sum of 70,000 Euros from European Union for the project,

The other university with which JU has tied-up is Leeds. It is in the field of multimedia research. Students completing their four semester multimedia course in JU will get a year's waiver for studying at Leeds from the second semester".

7. Computerization :

Over the last six months it has turned into a revolution. NSOU has already been connected with information superhighway through Internet. A new Website of the University has been developed by the in-house experts and launched in January 2003. It is being regularly updated and replenished with current information. We published the result of Term End Examinations December 2002 on the webssite. Online registration, online filling up of examination forms and online distribution of coursewares have been planned within the 10th five-year plan period. Given the relatively late entry of our university in the IT field we have been able to make our website quite up-to-date, interactive and user friendly.

Computerisation has been accomplished in almost all the Study Centres except in a few newly established ones. Not only have their recording and accounting systems been computerized, they are also making available audio-visual instructional materials for their students.

5.10 THE WEST BENGAL UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY.

BF-142, Salt Lake, Kolkata –700 064

The West Bengal University of Technology (WBUTech) came into existence on 8th August, 2000. It started functioning with the assumption of office of the First Vice Chancellor on 15th January, 2001 as a sequel to the promulgation of the West Bengal University of Technology Act 2000 under the West Bengal Act XV of 2000 passed by the West Bengal Legislature and published in the Calcutta Gazette (Extraordinary) vide Publication dated 20th July, 2000.

The University commenced its academic programme through its affiliated institutions from 16th July, 2001.

GENESIS

The Government of West Bengal set up an Expert Committee on 31st December, 1998 to explore the necessity and scope for establishment of a distinct Engineering /Technology University in the state under the chairmanship of Dr. Ashesh Prasad Mitra , Scientist- Eminence .

Reviewing the status and issues of technical education at degree and higher level in the country and in the state of West Bengal, the committee observed that the facilities for technical education at degree level in West Bengal require manifold enhancement. The existing and forthcoming engineering and technological colleges badly needed support and guidance of a full-fledged centralized University of Technology for growth and improvement of quality technological education. To achieve self-reliance the country required centers of excellence for evolving world-class technology .The Committee set twin objectives for a separate Technology University :

- to serve as a centre of excellence in teaching and research,

UNIVERSITIES

- to provide affiliation to engineering, technological and management institutes

The Government of West Bengal passed the West Bengal University of Technology Act, 2000 to materialize the vision of the Expert Committee. Under the tutelage of the University, the Committee envisioned, four Schools of Study shall cater to the emerging needs of higher learning:

- School of Applied Sciences
- School of Engineering & Technology .
- School of Management
- School of Advanced Interdisciplinary Study and Research

This University with a difference, which would strive to be a Centre of Excellence for advanced study and research in basic and applied sciences, engineering, technology and management would have certain distinctive features like:

- Post-graduate study and research would be especially emphasized for strong scientific grooming of engineers and technologists.
- The management system of the University would be compact and responsive to global changes in technology.
- The University would have intimate and collaborative linkages with national and international research institutes, universities and industries.
- The faculty would include, besides core faculty, visiting faculties, adjunct faculties and distinguished visitors from industries and front-line academic and research institutes of the country and abroad. In addition, there will be doctoral fellows.
- The University would have an International Centre to organize national and international seminars and conference and lectures by international experts in various fields of science and technology.
- The University would organize programmes and projects to generate resources.

MISSIONS

- To organize undergraduate courses of study in engineering and technology , especially in emerging areas.
- To organize post-graduate programmes in basic and applied sciences, engineering and technology and in such other branches of knowledge as the University may deem fit, specially with a view to producing scientists, technologists and managers of high calibre capable of contributing towards development of industries based on modern technology in collaboration with industries as well as national and international research laboratories and academic institutions.

- To develop centres of excellence for higher studies and research in basic and applied sciences, engineering, technology and management education.
- To create awareness in key areas of environmental science, conservation of energy and resource, Information Technology , and Bio-Technology .
- To organize continuing education programme for up-dating the knowledge and skills of in-service personnel.
- To undertake such other activities as may be necessary to fulfill the mission of sustaining the emerging areas of Science and Technology.

THE UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

The University is at present located at BF 142 , Sector I, Salt Lake City. Additionally it has been allotted 40 acres of land, as part of 100 acres contemplated for the main campus of the University, on NH 34 near Kalyani. The boundary wall for the allotted land is taken up as at first stage of construction.

ADMISSIONS

ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES DURING 2002-2003

The main function of this University is to create awareness in science and technology by organizing various courses of study at all levels – undergraduate and postgraduate – with a view to producing scientists, technologists and managers of high caliber capable of contributing towards development of industries, based on modern technology and also to develop center of excellence for higher studies and research in basis and applied sciences, technology and management education.

It is also intended to provide these updated technocrats with modern a qualities for development of infrastructure and industries for a country like ours where industrialization is very essential. Since there is though competition in the market due to globalization, the country needs efficient and qualified scientists, engineers and technocrats to support the process of industrialization. This is an upheaval task being performed by this University, though at present in its infant stage, to take part in production of high level personnel.

A unique Integrated Post B. Sc. Doctoral programme in Physical Science, with S. N. Bose National Centre for Physical Sciences, was proposed by SRISTY, and was duly accorded affiliation of the University. This programme is open to students from any part of India, selected through national level Competition.

The III-C has been amalgamated with The West Bengal University of Technology as the University Department of Information Technology. The students already on the roles of the Institute shall, henceforth, be under the academic and administrative support of the University and shall be awarded BE degree in Information Technology of West Bengal University of Technology on successful completion of the Course.

The University has started its first 2-year M. Tech. Course in Biotechnology at the University premises from January 2003. The University has been accorded a support grant from the Department of Bio-technology, Government of India, for running the course.

Also the University has plans to start in-house 2 Yr. M. Tech. Programme in Software Engineering in the same premises in order to meet the demand of teachers for Computer Science and IT in general degree colleges. The University has been planning to open the emerging new M. Tech. Course in Nano-materials and Microelectronics from the academic session 2003-2004.

Establishment Year : 1856

Deemed University Status : 1992

The Bengal Engineering College (A Deemed University), was established as the Civil Engineering College, Calcutta, on 24th November, 1856 with the idea of introducing engineering education in the country. On 12th February, 1920 the name was changed to B. E. College, Shibpur. The word 'Shibpur' was deleted on 24th March 1921. Till 1992, it was a constituent college of the Calcutta University. The college was elevated to the status of a Deemed University in 1992 and was formally inaugurated as a Deemed University by the President of India, Dr. Sankar Dayal Sharma, on March 13, 1993.

The B. E. College situated adjacent to the Indian Botanical Garden, covers an area of nearly 49 hectares. It is 8 km from the heart of the city through Vidyasagar Setu.

Academic Programmes :

The College offers undergraduate courses leading to B. E./B.Arch. degree in nine Engineering & Architecture branches with a total intake of 427 students per year. The non-Engg. Branches (Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, Geology & Humanities) offer various courses to the students of all branches. Postgraduate courses (3-semester) are offered in seven disciplines and a 6-semester course in Master of Computer Applications is run by the CST Department. M.Sc. course in Applied Physics, Applied Chemistry and Applied Mathematics have been introduced as non-engineering courses whereas B.E. in Information Technology has been introduced during the year. In addition, an M.Tech. Course is being offered through Purabi Das Institute of Information Technology, an Institution attached to the B. E. College (A Deemed University).

The Deemed University offers 10 Doctoral Fellowships and till date 40 Faculty members and scholars have registered for Ph.D. in various disciplines. The University has also been approved as a QIP center for M.E. Course in Civil, Electrical Engineering, Computer Science & Technology etc.

UNIVERSITIES

Academic Departments organize continuing education programmes, both long terms and short term like PG part time Evening Courses, Summer and Winter Schools, independently. The Departments also regularly organize Seminars/Workshops/Conferences for working engineers in collaboration with the industries and professional societies of National & International level. PG Courses on IT and MBA Courses for Working Engineers will be introduced very soon. Already the School of Management Sciences, offering a full-time MBA Course, has been launched successfully.

In this context infrastructure development and consolidation of academic programmes are felt necessary. In future, use of modern teaching aids with the help from Educational Technology Centre should be coupled with optimal use of computer network. It is planned to set up a wing for mass S & T education.

With these ideas in view, the following Centres of Excellence are being proposed to be set up :

- (a) Continuing Education Centre for Rural Developments
- (b) Environmental Engineering
- (c) Materials Science & Engineering

The interaction with the industry personnel through invited lectures is high on the agenda of the already established Industry/Institute Partnership Cell of this University. Some new tenure type positions are planned to be created in each department to bring in eminent academicians, technologists and managers from other institutes and industries, or even from abroad, to bolster the activities of the individual departments.

6.2.2 IGNOU (Indira Gandhi National Open University)

6.2.2.1 A NEW CONCEPT

The concept of an open University is an important innovation of the last century. It aims to bring about revolutionary changes in the system of learning through DISTANCE EDUCATION.

The first open University ('The Open University') was established in England in 1969.

IGNOU was established by an Act of Parliament in 1985 to achieve the following objectives :

- To democratise higher education by taking it to the doorsteps of the students.
- To provide access to high quality education to all those who seek it irrespective of age, religion or formal qualification.
- To offer need-based academic programmes by giving professional and vocational orientation to the courses.

- To promote and develop DISTANCE EDUCATION.
- To set and maintain standards in DISTANCE EDUCATION in the country as an apex body.

6.2.2.2 DISTANCE EDUCATION AND OPEN LEARNING

Distance Education is often confused with Correspondence Education. The distinction between Correspondence Education and Distance Education lies in their aims, methods and orientation. Correspondence Education is an extension of conventional education. Distance Education aims at varied goals. These include personal growth, training for better job prospects and job enhancement, a change in attitude, etc., in addition to imparting knowledge. Distance Education allows learning at one's own pace and offers easy entry and exit points. It makes life-long learning a reality. Distance Education employs a multimedia learning package. It is characterised essentially by the advanced learning strategies effected by modern communication technology. Correspondence Education, on the other hand, depends mostly on printed materials distributed by post.

6.2.2.3 GOVERNANCE

The President of India is the Visitor of the University. The authorities of the University include the Board of Management, Academic Council, Planning Board, Finance Committee, etc.

6.2.2.4 INSTRUCTIONAL SYSTEM

The University follows the multimedia approach in imparting instruction. It comprises :

- Self-instructional printed course material packages.
- Assignments for assessment and feedback.
- Supporting audio-video programmes.
- Face-to-face interaction between the student and Academic Counsellors at Study Centres and Work Centres.
- Practicals at designated Institutions.
- Project Work in some programmes.
- Work related field project/functional assignments as per programme requirements.
- Telecast of video programmes on Doordarshan.
- Broadcast of audio programmes by All India Radio (Select Stations)
- Interactive Satellite Aided Communication Network (Teleconferencing)

OTHER UNIVERSITIES

6.2.2.5 STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

Support services are provided through a network of Study Centres scattered all over the country. Study Centres are the actual focal points where the learners receive regular information and learning support. Each Study Centre is provided with library, audio and video facilities for the students. Senior and experienced academics and professionals are engaged in face-to-face counselling to further help them in the learning process. The Study Centres are generally located in existing educational institutions and normally function on holidays and Sundays and in the evening on working days. Each Study Centre is manned by part-time staff drawn from the host institution. To co-ordinate the functioning of Study Centres IGNOU has set up 19 Regional Centres in different parts of the country.

The IGNOU Regional Centre, Calcutta looks after the activities of the University in West Bengal. A list of Study Centres under Calcutta is given in the Appendix.

6.2.2.6 EVALUATION SYSTEM

IGNOU has a three-tier system of evaluation.

(I) Check Your Progress (self-assessment):

This is provided in study materials and is meant for self-assessment.

(II) Assignments (continuous internal assessment):

This carries a weightage of 25% to 30%. There are two types of assignments.

- Computer Marked Assignment (CMA) and
- Tutor Marked Assignment (TMA). TMAs submitted at the Study Centre are returned to the students after evaluation with comments.

(III) Term-End Examination (TEE):

This is the major component in the assessment as 70% to 75% weightage is given. University holds Term-End Examination twice a year (JUNE & DECEMBER).

6.2.2.7 STRIKING CHARACTERISTICS

- Relaxed entry regulations.
- Study according to one's pace and convenience.
- Flexibility in choosing the combination of courses from a wide range of disciplines.
- Study from one's own chosen place (during the course of study a student can change the opted Study Centre to any Centre anywhere in India except for certain exceptional cases).

- One may sit for Term-End Examinations generally anywhere in India and some select Centres abroad.
- Learners may also pursue their study in any other University while being a student of IGNOU.
- Cost effectiveness.

6.2.2.8 RECOGNITION

IGNOU is a Central University under the Ministry of Human Resources Development, Govt. of India. The Degrees, Diplomas, Certificates awarded by IGNOU are recognised by the Association of Indian Universities (AIU) and are at par with Degrees/Diplomas/Certificates of all Indian Universities/Deemed Universities/Institutions vide UGC Circular No : F1-8/92 (CPP) dated February, 1992.

The research programmes of the Biochemistry Department include studies for the basic understanding of gene expression in plants and bacteria, plant and animal biotechnology, yeast and parasite molecular biology, structure-activity relationship proteins and structural biology.

The major theme of the Biophysics Department is structure, function and dynamics of biomolecules. The research interests are mainly focused on proteins, nucleic acids and small pharmacologically active compounds.

The major research goal of Botany Department established in 1917 is to improve crop productivity using conventional and modern techniques, where genes with elite characters particularly those endowed with biotic and abiotic stress tolerance are identified and located in wild relatives, with an objective to incorporate those in cultigens of rice, Brassica, Beta and Chenopodium using breeding, tissue culture and genetic engineering techniques.

The programmes of the Chemistry Department are centred around studies on biomolecules. The major objective is to understand the chemical and biochemical nature of these molecules and gain information about their roles in biological processes.

The research activities of the Microbiology Department address mainly the problems in the areas of parasitic and bacterial infections, drug design, detoxification, plant-microbe and mineral-microbe interactions.

The Physics Department is one of the oldest departments in the Institute, as the founder himself was a physicist. The main objective of this department is to improve our understanding of the basic laws of nature, in the realm of both macro and micro worlds.

The Research Section on Animal Physiology was established in 1930 with the objective of understanding basic amphibian, piscine and invertebrate physiology, reproductive physiology, drug research and nutrition.

CHAPTER – 7

COLLEGES

7.1 GENERAL INFORMATION ON GOVERNMENT AND NON-GOVERNMENT COLLEGES :

There are at present Colleges of different categories in West Bengal under the administrative jurisdiction of the Higher Education Department. They include General Degree Colleges, Law Colleges, Teachers' Training Colleges and Engineering and Technological Colleges. The distribution of General Degree Colleges, and other Colleges in different districts along with population figure is shown in a Table at Page No.194 of this Chapter.

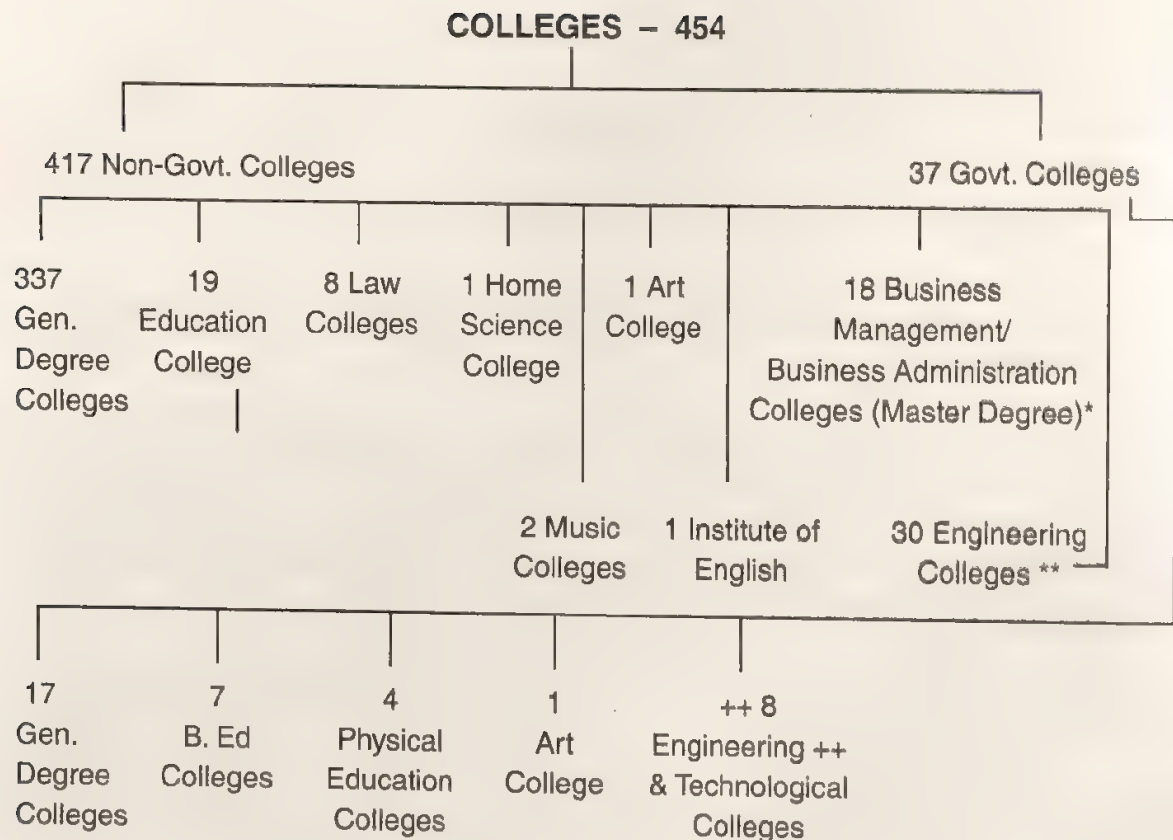

Degree Colleges in this State are under two broad categories—(i) Government Colleges and (ii) Non-Government Colleges.

Government Colleges are directly controlled by the State Government. The entire expenditure for these Colleges are borne by the Higher Education Department. The teaching and non-teaching staff of these Colleges are Government employees.

The Non-Government Degree Colleges are also financed by the Higher Education Department almost entirely. In 1978, the PAY PACKET SCHEME was introduced for payment of salary of teaching and non-teaching employees of the Colleges under the West Bengal Colleges (Payment of Salaries) Act, 1978. All Non-Government degree colleges (including erstwhile sponsored colleges) receive salary under this scheme.

The General Degree Colleges have a wide variety in enrolment, subjects offered and in educational achievements. The poor enrolment of some colleges are due to a weak infrastructure, distance from locality, teaching of only pass subjects etc. Steps are being taken for consolidation and improvement of these colleges by introducing diversified courses, honours teaching facility, etc.

COLLEGES

 These do not include departments of universities, e.g. Calcutta University, Jadavpur University, Kalyani University and Burdwan University which offer B. Tech./B.E. courses, and the B.E. College (D.U). One of the colleges is a Hotel Management College.

++ These include the R.E. College, Durgapur and The Institute of Jute Technology, Kolkata.

* Institutions offering postgraduate diploma/degree approved by the AICTE have been included. The IIM Kolkata has a special status.

From the chart it may be seen that the total number of General Degree Colleges in this State in 2002-2003 is 354 and that of Management Colleges is 18. The total number of Engineering and Technology 'Colleges is 38 (excluding B.E.College, D.U. and four university departments offering engineering and technology courses).

District	No. of Gen. No. of Colleges (Govt. & Non-Govt.)	Degree Colleges with Hons teaching facility

The Department feels that Honours teaching facility should be evenly distributed in the districts amongst various subjects in Arts, Science and Commerce Groups. Efforts are being made to move in that direction.

In the case of extension of affiliation to new subjects in the existing colleges, the infrastructure of the particular college, its teaching strength, academic record as evidenced by examination results, location, area served, etc. are taken into consideration. Special importance is also given for according affiliation to new subjects in colleges, which have a higher SC/ ST student population. A number of Govt. and Non-Govt.

COLLEGES

Colleges have been given extension of affiliation in respect of new subjects during 2001-2002. Some colleges have more than one shift on account of student population.

Out of 354 General Degree Colleges in West Bengal only 198 Colleges have the facility for science teaching at Pass and/ or Honours level. These science-teaching colleges are, however, not evenly distributed throughout all the districts. The following table will show percentage of distribution of colleges with science teaching facility in the districts.

COLLEGES

It is seen from the table that in Calcutta and Hooghly about 63.6% and 70.8% colleges respectively have the facility for Science teaching while in districts like Malda and Murshidabad the same is 37.5% and 38.9% respectively. Moreover, while Calcutta contains 21.21% of the total science teaching colleges in the State, South Dinajpur contains only 1.01% of the same. The contribution of the colleges in the northern part of his State towards Science teaching is small.

Most of the sciences teaching colleges teach physical sciences (Physics/Chemistry). Life Sciences (Botany/Zoology/Physiology) are taught in a much lesser number of colleges. Subjects like Statistics, Geology, Computer Science, Electronics, etc. are taught in a limited number of colleges although there is a great demand for those subjects. In view of the above, the Higher Education Department has been granting affiliation for Computer Science and Electronics in several colleges at both the pass and the honours level.

It may be noted from the following table that only 207 colleges offer teaching in Commerce. As regards districtwise distribution of these colleges, the percentage is high in only 5 districts, namely, Howrah, Hooghly, Burdwan, Birbhum and Nadia.

There are girls' colleges in all districts except Birbhum and North Dinajpur. The oldest Girls' College in the State is Bethune College, which was started in 1879. Besides the above-mentioned colleges, there are some professional colleges (Teachers' Training / Fine Arts/ Home Science etc.) which are meant for girls' students only.

7.2 GAMES AND SPORTS IN COLLEGES

FACILITIES

Although games and sports are not included in regular curricular programme of General Degree Colleges, the Government encourages these activities in various ways. There are posts of Physical Instructor/ Physical Instructress in all Government Colleges and in some Non-Government Colleges. They are entrusted with the responsibility of organising games and sports in respective colleges. Grants are released to colleges for purchase of equipment for games and sports.

GOVERNMENT COLLEGES

Most of the Govt. Colleges have playgrounds within or outside. The students of the colleges are encouraged to participate in games and sports. An INTER-GOVT. COLLEGE ATHLETIC MEET is held every year.

NON-GOVERNMENT COLLEGES

The picture of the non-Govt. colleges is slightly different. It is understood from available data that 105 colleges have playground attached to those colleges, while 25 colleges have playground outside the campus. But the playgrounds of most of those colleges are not spacious enough for popular games like football or cricket. Like Govt. Colleges, inter non-govt College athletic meet has started from last year.

7.3 HOSTEL FACILITIES IN COLLEGES

All the Government Engineering and Technological Colleges have hostel facility. All the Govt.

Teachers' Training Colleges, excepting one, also have this facility. Amongst the Govt. General Degree Colleges, however, only ten colleges have hostels. Amongst the non-Govt. (General Degree and Teachers' Training) colleges, ninety-three colleges offer this facility. The number of non-Govt. colleges in each district having hostel facility is shown below:

CENTRE FOR ADVANCED STUDY

Presidency College has a Centre for Advanced Studies in Economics. This centre was started in 1972 under the Special Assistance Programme of the U.G.C. The centre helps in conducting the teaching programme in Economics at B.A (Hons) level and carries out research programmes. Seminars and workshops are also organised by the Centre on various aspects of macro and micro-economics. The primary thrust of research in the Centre has been in the formulation of approaches and methods for understanding some important problems of Indian economy. Two posts of Professors have been created by the Govt. of West Bengal exclusively for the Centre.

MANAGEMENT OF GOVERNMENT COLLEGES

These are generally controlled by the Higher Education Department, Government of West Bengal with the assistance of the Education Directorate. In addition, every college has a Governing Body which supervises the normal functioning of the Colleges. The Higher Education Department has outlined the reconstitution of the Governing Body of Government Colleges through a Government order.

Evolution of Non-Govt. Colleges

Beside the Government Colleges, the State at present has 391 Non-Government Colleges of different categories of which 337 are non-Government General Degree College. Serampore College, established in 1818 under the initiative of the Danish Government is the oldest. It thus coincides with the year of establishment of Hindu College (later Presidency College) in Calcutta. It was followed by Krishnath College (1858), St. Xaviers' College (1860), St. Paul's College (1865) and Midnapore College (1873). The establishment of the colleges was, in some cases, associated with the National (Education) Movement in India during the British period, such as Surendranath College (1884) and Jadavpur Vidyapith (now Jadavpur Vidyapith College of Education). The decadal growth of Colleges (Appendix IB) will show the course of development of Non-Government Colleges. It will be seen from the table that the course of development of these Colleges has been uneven. Under the British rule, it was obviously very slow and the total number of Colleges from 1818 to 1947, was 55. However, the pace of development of Non-Government Colleges accelerated after 1947, mainly through the efforts of the Government. Permission for affiliation for teaching new subjects in B.A./B.Sc./B.Com. (Pass, Hons. Vocational, Physical Education & new emerging subjects) level is granted and additional funding provided. The educational field in the State has been enriched by the contributions of the old Rajas, Zamindars, the common public and the Christian Missions, Ramkrishan Mission and some minority communities as well as the general public.

Since Independence, the Central and the State Governments have appointed various commissions in the field of education, the University Education Commission, 1948-49, the Indian Education Commission (Kothari Commission), 1964-66 and the Education Commission (Ashok Mitra Commission), 1992-93 etc. for the improvement of education and the service conditions of the Non-Government College teachers which were not at par with those of the Government Colleges teachers. Steps taken for the improvement of the service conditions of teachers of Non-Government Colleges since the Left Front Government came in to power in 1977, are enumerated below:

- (i) As there was no security in service of College teachers and the payment of their salary was irregular, the present Government, after assumption of power, passed the West Bengal College (Payment of Salaries) Act, 1978 by which the security of service and the payment of salaries were ensured by the State Government. The Pay Packet Scheme is administered by Education Directorate.
- (ii) The Governing body of the Non-Government Colleges was democratized by the inclusion of elected representatives of the teaching and the non-teachings staff of the college.
- (iii) Previously the non-Government Colleges had to deposit 50% of their income in the Government Exchequer against the total payment of salary by the State Government. But the Government has waived this deposit.
- (iv) Similarly, Death-cum-Retirement benefit scheme was sanctioned for teachers of Non-Government Colleges in 1978. In 1993-94 an enhanced rate of pension and other benefits were sanctioned for teachers who had opted for them, making the benefits at par with those of the Government College teachers.

A Pension Cell is attached to the Pay Packet Section of the Education Directorate to look after the payment of the Retirement Benefits of the Non-Government College teachers. The State Government, even within its limited resources, has been striving to release the retirement benefits to the utmost possible extent.

Expansion and Quality improvement :

The State Government has concentrated on the decentralization of educational opportunities to the rural areas to meet the demands of the people for education. Altogether 115 Colleges have been established since 1977 in different parts of the State. Also side by side with access and expansion, the State Government is equally conscious of the need for improvement of the quality of college education. Every year the State Government has been sanctioning grants for the development of libraries and laboratories of the Colleges. Funds are also released for the repair, reconstruction/ renovation and extension of college buildings.

The responsibility of management of non-Government colleges lies with the Governing Body of the colleges. The academic matters of the Colleges are looked after by the University concerned to which the colleges are affiliated. These colleges are, however, within the administrative jurisdiction of the Education Directorate and the Higher Education Department.

COLLEGES

PLACEMENT OF TEACHERS IN NON-GOVERNMENT COLLEGES

The State Government established the West Bengal College Service Commission in 1979 for making recommendations for filling up the vacancies of different categories of posts in Non-Government colleges. The College Service Commission has been successful in filling up the vacant posts of academic staff in large numbers and has helped in raising the academic atmosphere in the Colleges. The State Government set up the West Bengal Council for Higher Education in 1994. The Council has contributed significantly in addressing the problems of co-ordination among universities and in raising academic standard in the State. (See Chapter II).

8.3 LAW EDUCATION

The introduction of law education in India can be traced back to the year 1827 when the course was introduced in Hindu College. When Presidency College came into being in 1855, law education became an important department of the College. Various factors, however, compelled this law department to be abolished in 1884. Ripon College (now Surendranath College) was granted affiliation to teach B. L. in 1885. The next major step in law education of the State was taken when Calcutta University opened its law college in 1909. Since 1970, four more law colleges have come up, along with law colleges at North Bengal and Burdwan Universities. The academic status of law education has however, fluctuated over the decades. Initially, it attracted brilliant scholars and produced most of the legal luminaries of the 19th century. After the First World War, the legal profession became overcrowded. After the Independence, law graduates came to be in high demand due to industrial and commercial growth and the facilities for law education was expanded.

Previously, the study of law comprised 3 year courses but of late a major innovation has been made by introducing a 5-year integrated course on the recommendations of the All India Bar Council. The course starts beyond the H.S. stage and the first 2 years include, apart from some basic law courses, English, Political Science, History and allied subjects. The last three years are devoted to the teaching of only law subjects.

The West Bengal University of Juridical Science was formally inaugurated on 22nd April 2000. The admission to the 5-year Course in law offered by the University is made through an All India Entrance Examination. The present position in legal education in the State is enumerated below in a summary form :

9.5 NATIONAL CADET CORPS (NCC)

9.5.1 NCC : AN INSTITUTION

1. The National Cadet Corps (NCC) has its genesis in the University Corps, which was created under the Indian Defence Act, 1917 with the object to make up the shortages of the Army. In 1920, when the Indian Territorial Act was passed, the "University Corps" was replaced by the "University Training Corps (UTC)". In 1942, the UTC was renamed as the University Officers Training Corps (UOTC). The national leaders realized the need to create a youth organisation at the national level to train the young boys and girls to be better citizens and future leaders of the country in all walks of life, including defence forces. A Committee under Pandit H.N. Kunzru was set up in 1946 at the behest of Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.

ACADEMIES AND ORGANISATIONS

2. Following the recommendations of the Committee, the NCC came into existence on 16th July, 1948 under the NCC Act XXI of 1948 under the Ministry of Defence (MOD). The Mahajani Committee constituted by the Govt. revised the Aims of the NCC in Jan 1974 as under :-
 - (a) To develop qualities of character, comradeship, discipline, leadership, secular out look, spirit of adventure and sportsmanship and ideals of selfless service among the youth to make them useful citizens.
 - (b) To create human resource of organised, trained and motivated youth to provide leadership in all walk of life including armed forced and always be available for 'he service of the nation.

9.5.2 GROWTH OF NCC

The Corps started in a small way with a target of 32,000 SD and 1,35,000 JD Cadets. Today, its sanctioned strength stands at 4.33 lakhs for SD and 7.30 lakhs for JD Cadets. While this figure by itself is quite substantial, the NCC covers only 3.8% of the eligible student population of our country. The network of 754 NCC Units comprises 4,500 colleges and 6,500 schools.

In the State of West Bengal the enrolled strength has risen from 20,000 cadets in 1948 to 93455 cadets in 2001.

In 1949, the Girls' Division was established in order to give equal opportunity to the girl students of the nation as well. The NCC was given an inter-service image in 1950 when the Air Wing was introduced, followed by the Naval Wing in 1952.

9.5.3 INDUCTION OF STUDENTS IN NCC

The induction into the NCC is on voluntary basis. Students, both boys and girls, can join at the age of 13 years in the Junior Division (JD) / Junior Wings (JW), from Class VIII to X and in the Senior Division (SD)/ Senior Wing (SW) from Class XI onwards. However, one point is to be noted here that NCC units are not compulsorily available in all schools and colleges; hence students from institutions where no NCC unit exists will need to enroll in the so-called 'Open Units' if they want to join NCC.

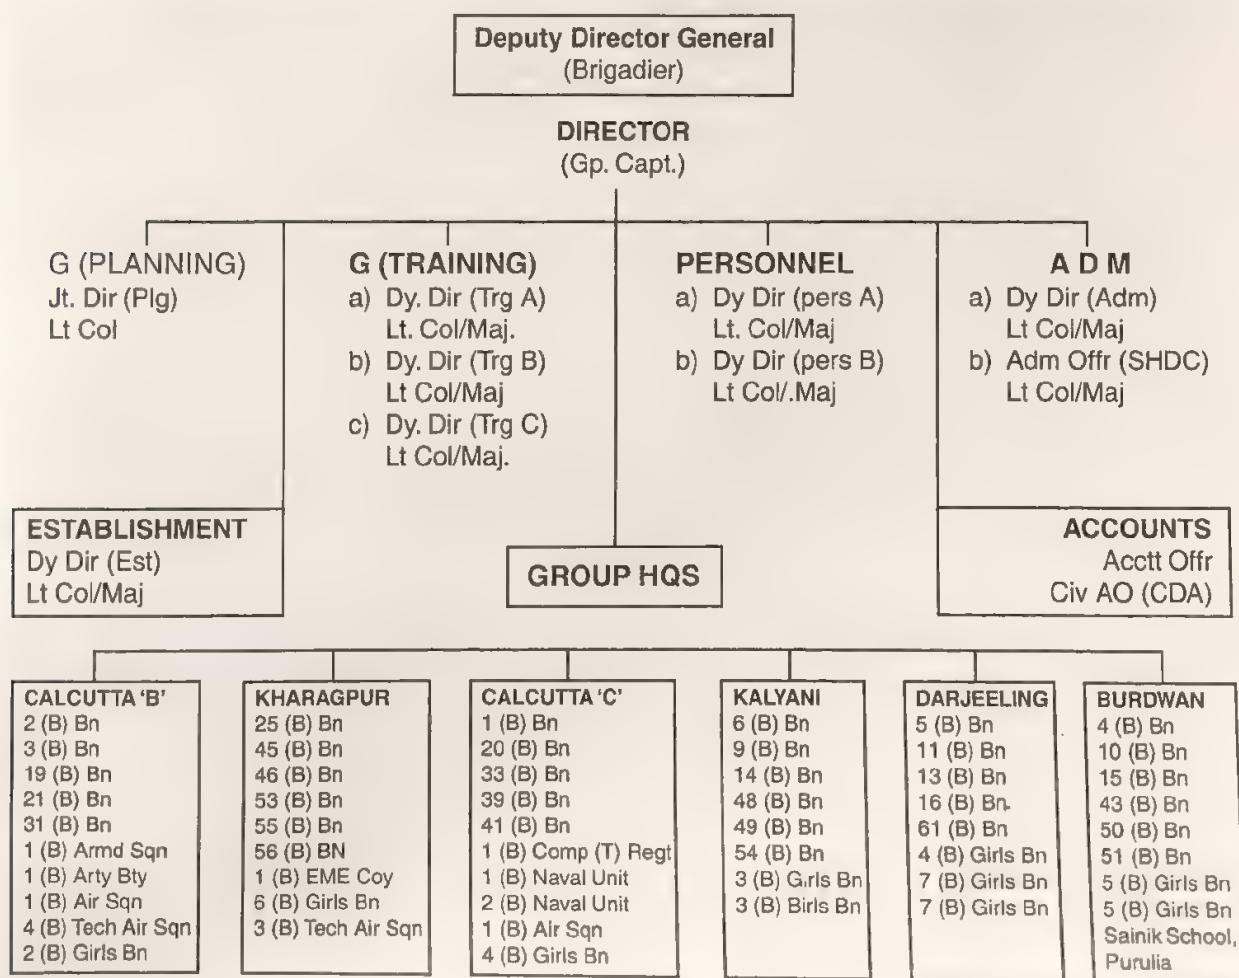

9.5.4 ADMINISTRATION OF NCC

The NCC organisation is administered through the Ministry of Defence. It is headed by a Director General, an army officer of the rank of Lieutenant General. 16 Directorates of the organisation cover all the States and Union Territories. These Directorates are headed by an officer of the rank of Brigadier or equivalent from other two services. Each of the State NCC Directorate controls two to fourteen Group Headquarters, headed by an officer of the rank of Colonel or its equivalent. In all, there are 91 Group Headquarters in the country, which exercise control over a network of 658 Army Wing Units (including Technical and Girls' Units), 58 Naval Units and 58 Air Squadrons. The NCC Unit is commanded by a Major / Lt Col or equivalent officer of other services. In addition, the NCC has two training establishments-Officers' Training School (OTS), Kamptee (near Nagpur) and Women Officers' Training School (WOTS), Gwalior where professors and teachers from colleges and schools are specially trained to impart training to the cadets as Associate NCC Officers (ANOs) in order to impart training and guidance to the NCC cadets.

9.5.5 ORGANISATION OF NCC IN THE STATE OF WEST BENGAL

Headquartered at New Alipore (Kolkata), the NCC Directorate of West Bengal & Sikkim comprises 6 NCC Group Headquarters and 52 NCC Battalions (i.e.Units) providing NCC coverage in 7 Universities, 192 Colleges, 565 Schools spread across 23 districts in the States of West Bengal and Sikkim with an authorised cadet strength of 93,735. The organisation is as under :

ACADEMIES AND ORGANISATIONS

9.5.6 TRAINING STAFF STRUCTURE IN WEST BENGAL

In West Bengal the training in the NCC is conducted through a three tier system as follows :-

First tier :

- (a) Regular Officers : In the first tier are the 124 regular officers from the Army, Navy and Air Force..They provide overall guidance and supervision for the conduct of the training.

Second tier :

- (b) Associate NCC Officers (ANOs) : In the second tier, there are 882 ANOs from colleges and from schools who are lecturers / professors / teachers, both male and female. They form a very important part in the conduct of the training and allied activities in relation to the students enrolled as cadets in their respective institutions.

Third tier :

- (c) Junior Commissioned Officers (JCOs), non-commissioned Officers (NCOs) and Equivalent from Navy and Air Force : These constitute the ground staff for physical conduct of the institutional service training and indeed form the backbone of the entire programme. The establishment is for 900 personnel.
- (d) Girl Cadet Instructors (GCIs) : They are a very important link in the chain relating to imparting training to girl cadets. GCIs are posted in various NCC Girls Battalions to impart institutional training to the girl cadets. They provide security and escort to girl cadets in various organised camps and adventure activities.
- (e) Civil Gliding Instructors (CGIs) : To impart instructional training to NCC cadets in gliding, Air Force Officers were engaged initially, but over the years the shortage of pilots led to induction of CGIs. Today Air Squadrons in the NCC have on their strength 17 CGIs, who have been employed by the Govt. through Union Public Service Commission (UPSC). No CGIs have been posted in the Air units of West Bengal.
- (f) Ship Modelling Instructors (SMIs) and Air Modelling Instructors (AMIs) : 2 SMIs and 2 AMMs are on the State Government's payroll. They are generally Ex-NCC trained cadets. They train Naval / Air Wing NCC cadets in constructing models of ships, sail boats and aeroplanes and operation of remote control models.

9.5.7 CIVILIAN STAFF IN NCC

All the State NCC Directorates have civilian staff of various categories. The staff at the Directorate is financed by the Central Government. The staff at the Group Headquarters and the NCC Units is funded by the State Government. A total of 55 posts of civilian staff (51 filled) are under the Central Government and 1137 posts (849 filled) under the State Government.

9.5.8 NCC ACTIVITIES IN THE STATE AND THEIR FUNDING

From drill and weapons training in the beginning, the spectrum of NCC activities has expanded considerably. These can be broadly divided into five distinct categories, namely, Institutional Training, Community Development, Youth Exchange Programme, Sports and Adventure Training.

- (b) Institutional Training : Drill, shooting, physical fitness, map reading, first aid, gliding / powered flying, boat pulling, sailing and camp training form part of Institutional Training. Camp Training constitutes the most important part of NCC Training. In camps, young cadets get the thrill and joy of outdoor and community living. All India camps such as National Integration, Leadership, Nau Sainik, Vayu Sainik, Army Attachment, Republic Day and Independence Day Camps, in which cadets from all parts of the country work together, contribute greatly towards promoting national integration.

Institutional training also covers basic military training in the Army, Navy or Air Force subjects. The aim of this training is to expose the youth to a regimental way of life to inculcate in them the values of discipline, personality, orderliness and smartness.

- (c) Community Development : The purpose of organising these activities is to make our young people conscious and sensitive to the needs and problems of their fellow countrymen, as also to contribute meaningfully to enriching the community life. Some of the major community development activities include Flood Relief, blood donation, adult literacy, anti-dowry, anti-leprosy, anti-drug, tree plantation, work in Cheshire homes, eye donation and construction of roads. Environmental Programmes, especially in connection with developing waste lands and afforestation are receiving greater attention. Since the year 1991-92, the NCC cadets planted 45 lakhs saplings throughout the country. Our cadets have planted 42,552 saplings throughout the State. 967 NCC cadets of this Directorate have donated blood since 1996.

- (d) Youth Exchange Programme (YEP) : With a view to increasing international understanding and heightening awareness, the NCC has a Youth Exchange Programme with Youth Organisations / NCC of ten countries, namely, Australia, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Canada, Maldives, Nepal, Singapore, Sri Lanka, Trinidad & Tobago and the United Kingdom.

- (e) Sports : The Central Advisory Committee decided in November, 1996 to include games and sports in the curriculum of the NCC to make it more attractive to the students and to explore the untapped source for sports persons. The first ever NCC Games were held at Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium in Delhi from 9-15 August 1997, coinciding with the 50th anniversary of India's independence. This event has now become an annual feature and is conducted in the month of August as Independence Day Camp (IDC).

ACADEMIES AND ORGANISATIONS

- (f) Adventure Training : Adventure activities are organised to develop special qualities of courage, leadership, spirit of adventure and sportsmanship, spirit of camaraderie, team work and self confidence among the cadets. Some of the activities are Trekking, Rock Climbing, Mountaineering, Para Jumping, Scuba Diving, Water Skiing, Sailing, Kayaking, Yachting, Hang Gliding, Para Sailing, Glider and Microlight Flying, Slithering and Cycle/ Motorcycle Expeditions. The NCC has conducted 2 Mountaineering and 10 trekking expeditions. 652(boys and girls) cadets have taken part in mountaineering expeditions and 2 girl cadets in trekking from the State of West Bengal.

The NCC activities receive their budgetary support from the sources as under: -

- (a) Ministry of Defence, GOI : It allocates budget to cover pay and allowances of the entire staff of Directorate General NCC and State's NCC Directorates, unit equipment of all the NCC units, ammunitions for the small arms given to the NCC, clothing and uniform items for the cadets, all major equipment to support adventure activities such as gliders, trekking and mountaineering kits, horses, boats etc. 50% expenditure of all camps and pay and allowances of civilian staff of Dte Gen NCC and State NCC Dtes.
- (b) State Governments : They give support to cover pay and allowances of civilian staff employed in Group Headquarter and units, the cost of training and allowances of ANOs, washing and polishing allowances, recurring running expenditure by way of fuel, rental for buildings occupied by Group Headquarters and the NCC Units etc. and camp expenditure upto 50%.

9.5.9 MAIN EVENTS OF THE NCC

- (a) NCC Day : It is celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month of November every year. Events like wreath laying ceremony at Amar Jawan Jyoti, India Gate, NCC Lecture on a current subject and adventure expeditions are organised. In the State, a rally is conducted featuring march past, cultural activities, aeromodelling, para-sailing etc.
- (b) Republic Day Camp (RDC) : This 25-day long Camp is held every year in the month of January from the 5th January at the Garrison Parade Ground, Delhi Cantonment. All the 16 NCC Directorates with about 1,700 cadets from all over the country and some cadets from abroad (i.e. from the Youth Exchange Programme Countries) participate. Pre-RDC activities are carried out for 4 to 6 weeks in Kolkata for selection and training.
- (c) Independence Day Camp (IDC) : Subsequent to the inclusion of sports in the curriculum of the NCC, IDC is held every year at the national level in the month of August. Sports persons from all the 16 NCC Directorates participate. The maiden NCC Games (IDC) were held from 6-15 August, 1997, and it has now become a regular annual feature. The Cadets of West Bengal have been performing extremely well in the NCC Games and have won many laurels.

9.5.10 CONCLUDING NOTE

There is a lot of scope for development in and through NCC in our State. NCC will shortly shift hands and go under the purview of the Home (Civil Defence) Department in West Bengal, but it gives us pleasure to mention that our long involvement with the NCC has been cherishable.

At present there are effectively three offices responsible for the over-all control and flourishing of NCC in our State : (a) NCC Directorate Headquarter at New Alipore (Kolkata), (b) Higher Education Secretariat at Bikash Bhavan (5th & 6th floors), and (c) Higher Education Directorate at Bikash Bhavan (8th floor). It has been our observation that the more well-coordinated the activities of these three offices are, the brighter and greater becomes the outcome. Sincerity of purpose and devotion to work have proved to be the key elements to achieve any pre-set target.

Well-trained cadets of NCC, possessing NCC 'B' and/or 'C' Certificate/s and having the experience of attending several state-level and/or national-level NCC camps, are indeed a group of valuable and disciplined citizens which any state of the country can be proud to have. This priceless human resource must never be allowed to go waste. Such cadets, who also fulfill other entry-criteria, should be given adequate priority in case of employment and other opportunities; this will surely work wonders in the forward march of our State.

In the national arena our NCC Directorate has been ranking only moderately in recent years – its position generally varies from 8th to 11th among the 16 NCC Directorates of the country. The time has come when all involved must start thinking seriously on the possible ways and means of improving our performance and then act accordingly. We would be happy to share our experience and knowledge with the Home (Civil Defence) Department of West Bengal and wish them all success with the NCC in the days ahead.

9.6 NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (N. S. S.)

The overall aim of National Service Scheme (NSS) is to give an extension dimension to the higher education system and orient the student youth to community service while they are studying in educational institution. The reason for the formulation of this objective is the general realisation that the college and 42 level students have a tendency to get alienated from the village/slum masses which constitute the majority of the population of the country. With this objective in view the NSS was started in West Bengal in 1969 along with other states of India. The scheme of NSS is a centrally sponsored scheme to be organised by the Central Govt. in collaboration with the State Govt. The nodal agency for implementation of the scheme at the State Level is the Higher Education Deptt., Govt. West Bengal. The scheme is organised, at the state level, by the State Liasion Officer (NSS) in the Higher Education Deptt who represents the State Govt. The State Govt. acts through the universities and H.S. Council for organising the NSS activities in colleges and schools. At the university level the Programme Co-ordinator is in charge of the NSS. At the college/school level a Programme Officer is in charge of one NSS unit consisting of 100 NSS volunteers who have to be the students of that college.

ACADEMIES AND ORGANISATIONS

The activities of National Service Scheme are divided into two parts - Regular activities and Special camping programme.

Regular activities : Regular activity includes activities like campus cleaning, afforestation, organisation of blood donation camp, organisation of literacy camp, participation in pulse polio programme, organisation of health check-up camp, organisation of seminars on AIDs awareness etc.

The funds for the scheme are provided by the Central and State Govt. at 7:5 ratio. The funds are provided to the colleges and schools through the universities. This year 72 Lakhs have been sanctioned for NSS activities.

At present, the total NSS volunteer strength in West Bengal is 53,000. During 2003-2004 the target for enrolling the NSS volunteers has been fixed at 60,000. Already, some 25 colleges in West Bengal have opened new NSS units. Attempts are being made to open new NSS units in technological colleges.

During 2002-2003 NSS volunteers in West Bengal have done excellent jobs in villages and slums through the regular activity. Special Camping programmes have also been organised in quite a good number of colleges. Our NSS volunteers have participated in National Youth festival in Trivandrum in January 2003. They have also organised a rally on 1st December, 2002 on the occasion of National AIDs DAY for creating awareness about the menace of AIDs.

As per statutory requirement NSS State Level Advisory Committee meeting has been held in September 2002. University Level Advisory Committee meetings were also held in Calcutta, Jadavpur, Rabindra Bharati, Burdwan, Viswa Bharati, Vidyasagar and North Bengal University.

The TORC Narendrapur and TOC Kharagpur are regularly organising Training Courses and Refresher Courses for the NSS Programme Officers.

10.1 BANGIYA BIGNAN PARISHAD

Satyendra Bhaban, P-23, Raja Rajkrishna Street

10.2 BANKIM BHABAN GABESANA KENDRA

Kantalpara,
P.O. Naihati,
Dist. 24-Pargana (North), Ph.: 2581-9933

Bankim-Bhawan Gaveshana Kendra was established as a registered research centre in the year 1999 within the premises of Bankim Chandra Chatterjee's ancestral house at Kantalpara, P.O. Naihati, Dt. North 24 Pargana. This historical mansion had been acquired by the Government of West Bengal in the Department of Higher Education and renovated a portion retaining the original architectural design. The aims and objectives of the BB Gaveshana Kendra include research on :

- i) the social, economic, cultural and religious history of Bengal,
- ii) the history of development of Bengali Language and literature including its current trends and
- iii) the life and works of Rishi Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay and other eminent personalities who contributed to the 'Renaissance' in Bengal.

During the year under review the museum possessing invaluable materials on life and time of

RESEARCH INSTITUTES AND AUTONOMOUS VOLUNTARY ORGANISATIONS

Bankim Chandra has been thoroughly renovated by covering the walls and the roofs of the hall and Bankim Chandra's study by damp-proof marine ply to protect the display materials.

It may be mentioned here that this 3-room Baithak Khana was built by Bankim Chandra himself and most of his literary creation was penned in his study within this Baithak Khana. The famous BANDEMATARAM song was also composed and set to tune for the first time by Bankim's Guru Jadu Bhatta a famous maestro of the period in this hall. Most of the contemporary eminent literatures and contributors to the highly esteemed literary magazine BANGADARSHAN edited by Bankim Chandra and published from this house, used to assemble in this hall regularly in the weekends. Hence, these rooms should be treated as sanctum of Bengali literature and culture.

In conformity with this approach, photographs of Bankim Chandra's associates, some of these are very rare, are displayed along with the invaluable images of his family members, in the hall. Prof. Biswanath Roy of the School of illumination Science, Jadavpur University and Sri Partha Mukherjee Illumination Engineer, Central Lidac, Philips India Ltd. very kindly supervised the illumination arrangement of the exhibition hall. The innovative lighting adds a new artistic dimension to the exhibits.

A good number of furnitures have been procured for preservation and display of most rare documents and very rare books and journals collected in the library. A Fumigation unit installed to treat the old books and paper-documents and the showcases arranged to display interesting documents.

It was felt that the books and journals mostly printed in the mid-19th century and hundreds of manuscript documents massed here from different sources should be arranged and preserved properly using modern digital technology. These are basic materials for research on the social history of Bengal. It may be considered very remarkable work completed recently that more than 20,000 (twenty thousand) pages have been scanned, cleaned and put in Compact Disks. This Digital Archive attracts serious researchers and this Centre, despite acute scarcity of space, offers all facilities. A good number of books and journals - printed in Sambad Prabhakar press of Iswar Chandra Gupta and Bangadarshan Press installed in this house by Sanjib Chandra Chattopadhyaya in the year 1873, were in too brittle condition requiring special care. One ex-employee of the National Library helped to get these books and journals laminated with foreign tissue papers and bind these with utmost care. Thus these rare volumes get a new lease of life.

In this year a fully equipped Computer Centre could be established possessing 3 Pentium-4 machines, Scanner, Laser-jet and Desk-jet (colour) printers, CD writers, Zip-Drive, Modem, Multi Media Kit, Photo-shop, Page Maker, Data-scan software and various other software packages necessary for composing and preserving all types of print-materials.

One of our eminent Film Directors, Sri Buddhadeb Dasgupta has made a Docu-Film namely BANKIM CHANDRER BARI (The house of Bankim Chandra) on behalf of Bankim-Bhavan Gaveshana Kendra in 35 M.M., duration of the film being 15 minutes. Sri Dasgupta declined to accept any remuneration for directing the film. Gaveshana Kendra records this gesture with gratitude.

Publication of BANGADARSHAN a new from this very house wherefrom Bankim Chandra started the journal in 1872 may be considered a major event and it is a pleasure to mention that our cultural world has warmly appreciated this initiative. Scholars like Prof. Hirendranath Mukhopadhyay, Prof. Rabindra Kumar Dasgupta, Prof. Dilip Kumar Biswas, Prof. Bhabatosh Dutta, Prof. Saroj Bandyopadhyay, Prof. Ashru Kumar Sikdar, Prof. Sudhir Chakraborty, Prof. Partha Chattopadhyay, Prof. Ramakanta Chakraborty, Prof. Abul Mansur of Bangladesh and most eminent creative writers like Sri Annada Shankar Roy, Sri Aloke Ranjan Dasgupta, Syed Mustafa Siraj, Sri Shankha Ghosh, Sri Debesh Roy, Sri Kumar Roy, Sri Budhadeb Dasgupta and some other well known writers are associated with this mouthpiece of Gaveshana Kendra. In this year BANGADARSHAN - 3 has been published and no.4 is under preparation.

On request Prof. Bhabatosh Dutta has prepared a monograph namely 'Bangadarshan- Parampara' (successive publication of the journal Bangadarshan) in which he has narrated and analysed the contents of Bangadarshan Patrika successively edited by Bankim Chandra, Sanjib Chandra Chatopadhyay, Rabindranath, Shris Majumdar, Sudhir Mitra, Kalipada Bhattacharya and Mohitlal Majumdar. This monograph contains complete index of the Bangadarshan published in different times under different editorship. The monograph will be published from this centre very soon.

Another important monograph - 'The tune variation of Bandemataram song', English translation of the original Bengali article written by Late Prof. Ananda Kumar Chakraborty is being processed for publication.

It was stated in the previous year's Annual Report that i) descriptive catalogues of writings of Bankim Chandra in different languages and ii) compilation of Bankim- Abhidhan have been undertaken now. Throughout this year work on these on-going projects progressed considerably.

As in the previous year the birth anniversary of Bankim Chandra was observed this year also and a seminar held on the day. Prof. Saroj Bandyopadhyay, Prof. Ashru Kumar Sikdar and Prof. Sudhir Chakraborty spoke on different upsects of Bankim Chandra and Bengali culture.

Bankim Bhavan Gaveshana Kendra received a financial grant of Rs. 5,39,476.00 (Rupees Five lac thirty nine thousand and four hundred seventy six) only and Rs. 1,80,000.00 (Rupees One lac eighty thousand) only for the film Bankim Chandrer Bari -under the plan and non-plan sector during the year 2001 - 2002.

A grant of Rs. 10,00,000 (Rupees Ten lac) only from the Govt. of India in the Department of Culture received for development works in this financial year.

RESEARCH INSTITUTES AND AUTONOMOUS VOLUNTARY ORGANISATIONS

Since 1 April 2002 the major events took place in this Centre are being narrated below:

One of the most important projects initiated in this Centre is revival of Bankim Chandra's BANGADARSHAN PATRIKA. In the period under review two more important issues were published. Special mention should be made of starting publication of archival materials in BANGADARSHAN. In the 4th issue a very rare and valuable diary written by Sanjib Chandra Chattopadhyay has been published with necessary annotations. Such materials will be published in subsequent issues also.

The cleaning and digitilisation of archival materials has been continuing. Till date nearly 25000 pages of printed and hand written materials has been put in the compact disc. These materials are expected to be used by the Social Science researchers and expected to throw new light on many grey areas of our social and literary history.

For this work this Centre urgently requires two computers and one whole time computer operator.

On June 28th 2002 BANKIM JAYANTI was celebrated like previous years. The novelty of this year's programme was arranging full length demonstration of Katha- katha. After a brief introduction by Prof. Gautam Bhadra, famous Kathak Sri Dwijaraj Bandyopadhyay of Bankura presented TARAN SEN BADH PALA. Mention may be made that Bankim Chandra in his days used to arranged Katha-katha in the same courtyard where this years function was held.

Haraprasad Shanti Gaveshana Kendra a registered organisation established in the year 1978 for publishing the Bengali writings of Mamahopadhyay Shastri from West Bengal State Book Board had approach the Bhavan authorities with a proposal of total merger with the BBGK on certain conditions. The Governing Body of Bankim- Bhavan Gaveshana Kendra approved of the proposal in its meeting held on 5th November 2002 and subsequently the HARAPRASAD SHASTRI GAVESHANA KENDRA handed over its library, furnitures and a fixed deposit amounted Rs.50,000/- to Bankim Bhavan.

In accordance with the stipulations of the Haraprasad Shastri Gaveshana Kendra this year's HARAPRASAD-JAYANTI was celebrated on the 6th December 2002. Prof. Asoke Sen (former Professor of the Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Kolkata) delivered there commemoration lecture and his subject was SAMYA the book written by Bankim Chandra. It was a highly erudite presentation. A very interesting exhibition was organised on the life and works of M M Haraprasad Shastri. His publications and personal belongings were displayed. At the end of the function the Docu-Film BANKIM CHANDRER BARI directed by Sri Budhadeb Dasgupta was screened.

In the meantime, huge archival materials on the life and time of Bankim Chandra have been discovered in a very poor condition. These manuscript-materials are invaluable in 19th century studies every bit of paper, deserves appropriate care and proper preservation. This is a continuing project and despite financial stagnancy the Centre has been carrying on this work with expert advice and support.

The scholar-visitors have already started using the portion of materials already neatly cleaned and laminated. The digitalisation of these materials is essential and this requires substantial financial assistance. These are invaluable National property and must be saved as materials for National history.

One more very significant event to be mentioned is the Puthi collection received from the family of Haraprasad Shastri. In the year 1756 great-grand father of Haraprasad Shastri Manikya Tarkabhushan established a Chatuspathi in Naihati and this Chatuspathi produced the famous scholars of Bhatpara, Halisahar, Tribeni. The Puthi collection of Shastri Bari had been used by the scholars of five successive generations of Pandits. This precious collection of Naya, Smriti, Dayabhaga, Bayakaran, Alankar etc. is presented by the Shastri family.

For proper maintenance and preparing descriptive catalogue and also scanned & digitilised for preserving in compact disc a substantial financial assistance is required.

Bankim-Bhavan Gaveshana Kendra received a financial grant of Rs. 3,04,149.00 (Rupees Three lac four thousand and one hundred forty nine) only for the year 2002 - 2003 till the date.

After immediate completion of 125 years and at the juncture of 75th Year of Discovery of Raman Effect IACS continues to strive towards excellence in basic science and allied technology covering several emerging frontline areas of materials research, atomic, molecular and optical physics, molecular science, theoretical science and biology. However, the acute shortage of funds remains a matter of grave concern for its all-round growth and development.

Research Activity in various departments and units:

Materials Science

During the year motivated research has been carried out in the Department of Materials Science of Indian Association for the Cultivation of Science on the front line areas of synthesis and characterization of materials of current interest. There is also a strong theoretical group working in the front line areas of Atomic and Molecular Physics.

Continued activities have been in the areas of Powder Profile Analysis in Alloys, Films and Crystal Growth and defects Characterization in solution-grown single crystals of sulphate groups.

Theoretical work was started to explore different approaches to molecular control. Investigation of selective population transfer by chirping, control over angular distribution and product branching using appropriately designed multi-frequency pulses is being carried out. Future plans include coherent phase control, optimization of pulse shape for achieving a specified target state.

Solid State Physics

Magnetic susceptibility, specific heat and Mossbauer spectral study of highly frustrated magnetic system like $\text{Dy}_2\text{Ti}_2\text{O}_7$ are reported. Magnetic properties of molecular magnets have also been investigated. EPR measurement on Mn(II) clusters in silica glass is indicative of supraparamagnetic transition at low temperature. Reciprocal space-real space direct methods have been applied successfully for ab-initio solution of a protein, lysozyme, without heavy atom. Donor-acceptor type heterojunction devices and dye-sensitized solar cells have been fabricated. A model has been developed to generate ac characteristics of light-emitting devices. Nanoparticles and nanorods of antimony selenide were prepared and optical and electrical properties were studied.

Spectroscopy

The highlight of achievements:

RESEARCH INSTITUTES AND AUTONOMOUS VOLUNTARY ORGANISATIONS

Laser flash photolysis experiments performed on different organic donor acceptor systems reveal the production of monomeric triplets, importance of hydrogen bonding effects, energy exchange via charge recombination process and enhancement of photobleaching efficiencies in non-polar environment. Identification of new and fascinating host-guest complexes of organic molecules in restricted geometry, dual fluorescence of some organic compound in reverse micelles and identification and mechanism of ultrafast excited state proton transfer have been done through photophysical studies.

Theoretical Physics

In the field of atomic and molecular physics Feshbach resonances due to the auto-detaching states of the positronium ion below the positronium excitation thresholds have been successfully predicted. First quantum calculations for antihydrogen-hydrogen scattering have been performed. Electron correlation effect has been studied for some two-electron transition processes.

In the field of condensed matter physics the relevance of effective theory for the edge fractional quantum Hall effect has been microscopically tested. A novel technique has been developed by which low energy spectrum for a fairly large number of uncommon fractional quantum Hall states can be obtained.

In the field of nonlinear dynamics it was shown by constructing a simple dynamical system analogous to the full system of spherical Bondi flow around a massive star, how the nonlinearity can actually select a particular trajectory at infinitely long times. This helps us understand how the transonic Bondi flow results in the steady state.

In the area of astroparticle physics, theoretical estimates of sea level muon spectrum at different zenith angles have been made and impressive agreement found with experimental data.

In the area of high energy phenomenology, a non-minimal supergravity framework has been identified where there is a possibility of having higgsino dominated lightest neutralino while having a smaller range of fine-tuning throughout the parameter space of the model.

In the field of gravitation and cosmology it has been shown that a spacetime with torsion can explain astrophysical signals like optical activity in radiation from distant galactic source. The implication for different compactification schemes has been explored.

Energy Research Unit

- (i) An indigenously designed and fabricated prototype production line for the fabrication of large area integrated double junction (30 cm x 30 cm) a-Si solar modules have been set up and made operational in December, 2002. Initial trial with the line has been started.

- (ii) High growth rate (4.5 A/Sec) has been achieved for intrinsic microcrystalline silicon films prepared by RF-PECVD method.
- (iii) Microcrystalline silicon based single junction solar cell has been fabricated with 6 % efficiency.
- (iv) Using transparent conducting ZnO (developed in our laboratory) at n/metal interface more than 10% increase in efficiency has been achieved in amorphous silicon solar cells.
- (v) A new PECVD deposited material has been developed and applied in single and double junction solar cell with higher stability.
- (vi) Plasma diagnostic of silane plasma mixed with different gases is on going.
- (vii) Using insight gained from theoretical modeling, specially the fact that the p/i interface for the pm-Si:H cells is considerably more damaged than standard a-Si:H based cells, the deposition parameters were optimised to ultimately yield pm-Si:H cells, with conversion efficiencies higher than a-Si:H cells.

Biological Chemistry

Total synthesis of tetra- and pentasaccharides related to the Shigella dysenteriae type 9 and Escherichia coli type 026 have been completed in view of our ultimate goal of preparing synthetic vaccines. Lectins from hemolymph of gastropod and fish sera have been purified to homogeneity by chromatography on ion-exchanger and affinity matrix and their erythroagglutinin properties have been studied.

Inorganic Chemistry

This includes: (1) Self assembly towards the construction of molecular ladder and rectangular grid of cadmium(II)-selenocyanate; (2) three new single end-to-end.azide-bridged copper(II) chains using three different tridentate Schiff bases magneto-structural correlations; (3) valence delocalization in a mixed-oxidation divanadium(IV, V) complex electro generated from a divanadium(V) analogue; (4) electron transfer reactions involving monomeric manganese(III)-and bis(u-oxo) manganese(III, IV) macrocycles; (5) new observations on copper(I)-water bond and electrooxidation of tetraphenylborate anion (6) deamination reactions in osmium(II) complexes.

Organic Chemistry

The continuing research efforts have unfolded novel methods of carbon-carbon bond formation by metal mediated reactions, transition metal induced radical reactions, and Lewis acid catalysed and microwave assisted processes. Asymmetric synthesis via chirality transfer during photocycloaddition reaction is one of the most significant achievements. These methodologies have been successively applied for the total synthesis of bioactive substances like pseudo nucleosides, sesquiterpenes and allelopathic compounds. A number of heterocyclic systems have been synthesised through transition metal induced reactions for investigating structure-activity relationships.

Physical Chemistry

A theory of quantum Brownian dynamics has been developed. A new class of growth models with nonlinear diffusion has been proposed and its implication and applicability to several biological problems (e.g., tumor growth) is being explored. A picosecond diode laser has been set up and solvation dynamics of proteins has been studied by covalently attaching the probe to the protein. IR-UV double resonance spectroscopy in supersonic jets has been used to obtain structures of hydrated clusters of tetrahydro isoquinoline. Multireference coupled cluster theory has been developed to obtain detailed information about potential energy surfaces of molecules in which correlation effects are strong.

Polymer Science Unit

Researches in the following areas were conducted

Living Polymers : Synthesis of living polyacrylamide (an important water soluble polymer) was accomplished for the first time using the atom transfer radical polymerization route.

Novel elastomer blends : Various combinations of accelerators and vulcanizing agents were investigated in order to improve upon the covulcanization of elastomers differing greatly in the level of unsaturation e.g. natural rubber + EPDM rubber.

Polymer crystallization : The crystallization of PET with the piezoelectric polymer poly(vinylidene fluoride) was explored.

Polymer gelation : Conductivity variation of polyaniline gels was studied as was the thermodynamics of gelation of poly(3-alkyl thiophene) in xylenes.

Polymer based nanostructures : Progress has been made towards the synthesis of hollow polymer nano-capsules.

Polymer-surfactant interaction : Interaction between a physiologically important surfactant viz. bile salt and a biocompatible polymer, poly(vinyl pyrrolidone), was studied.

Honours and Awards :

Our faculty members have received national awards, they have been elected to distinguished Academies of Sciences and invited to address various national and international meetings.

We are trying to augment our research library for the benefit of our members and other scholars.

Dr. Deba Prosad Choudhury, formerly Professor of History, Jadavpur University, has kindly donated several very valuable maps on the Mc Mahon Line for our library.

V. JOURNAL AND OTHER PUBLICATIONS :

Among the historical journals of India, The Quarterly Review of Historical Studies regularly published by the Institute since its inception commands probably the largest circulation in India and abroad. It is now running the 41st year of its publication. Volume XL Nos. 3 & 4 (combined) came to be published in May, 2002. Volume XLI Nos. 1 & 2 (combined) (in press) will come out before the end of February, 2003. Volume XLI Nos. 3 & 4 (combined) will be sent to the press in March, 2003.

The Institute expects to bring out in February, 2003 an important publication 'Assam's Place in India-China Relations, and its Future Role in India's Economy', embodying the Professor H. K. Barpujari Endowment Lectures delivered by Professor Haraprasad Ray, formerly of Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi in March 2002.

The third volume of The Dictionary of National Biography (Supplement) is being prepared for the press. The Dictionary of National Biography, a monumental publication of the Institute, is the first venture of its kind in India.

We are eagerly awaiting the decision of the Indian Council of Historical Research regarding our proposal of a collaborative research project on the 'History of Indian Historiography' as submitted to the Council for a grant-in-aid with a view to publishing a well-researched monograph on the same.

VI. OTHER ACTIVITIES :

The Institute provides assistance to scholars working on projects of historical research. During the year under review several such research projects as submitted through the Institute to the Indian Council of Historical Research are in progress with grants from the Council.
